Description Of Services:

Meetings are held the second Thursday of every month from 7 p.m. - 9 p.m. at the Hearing and Speech Foundation, 1652 East Broadway Avenue, Maryville, TN 37804. Meetings take place from September through June. December is our annual Christmas party and the National HLAA Convention takes the place of the June Meeting. We take a break during the months of July and August. Fully Accessible. Transcribing Services provided. Our mission is to open the world of communication for people with hearing loss through information, education, advocacy and support. We strive to serve all persons who experience hearing loss, their friends and families, as well as those who work in related hearing health fields.
